

Chronic Pancreatitis & Alcohol

TRUE

FALSE

Alcohol can increase the risk of chronic pancreatitis

Alcohol does not directly cause the disease

Alcohol can be one factor of many factors (genetics, unknown causes)

Only very heavy drinking (5 drinks or more per day for 5 years) can cause chronic pancreatitis

Less than 5% of those who abuse alcohol will develop chronic pancreatitis

Once diagnosed with chronic pancreatitis, you cannot drink any alcohol

Alcohol is the greatest risk factor for chronic pancreatitis

Alcoholism is the leading cause of chronic pancreatitis

The majority of chronic pancreatitis cases are attributed to alcohol abuse

You can continue drinking after a chronic pancreatitis diagnosis

